June 19, 2022

In 2022, Bryan and his family joined the work with the Church of Christ in Champions in Houston, TX, after ministering for 14 of the last 23 years in Middle Tennessee. Since 1999, Bryan and his wife Mendy began their work in ministry, serving congregations in Missouri and Tennessee. In addition to ministry, Bryan served as a full-time Assistant Professor of Behavioral Sciences for Freed-Hardeman University from 2014 until 2022. He now serves as a full-time Assistant Professor in the School of Education for Amridge University.

Bryan and his wife Mendy have been married since 1999 and have four children: Connor (2003) a sophomore at Freed-Hardeman, Kendyl (2006), Kinley (2011), and Carson (2015). Bryan is the youngest of two sons born to Kristie McAlister and the late Robert McAlister of Jonesboro, IL. Their gift to their sons was to raise them in a faithful Christian home. Bryan has an MA in Community Counseling (2007) and a PhD in Professional Counseling (2017). He is a Nationally Certified Counselor (NCC). His best decision to date, is saying yes to Mendy's constant plea for marriage. By God's grace and Mendy's devotion, their family is able to minister and serve their community and the Lord's church.
