Dale Jenkins is married to his wife Melanie, and they have two sons and five grandchildren. Dale has been the pulpit minister for the Spring Meadows Church of Christ in Spring Hill, TN since 2007. He recently has stepped away from full-time pulpit work to do full-time work with the Jenkins Institute. Prior to Spring Meadows, Dale preached the previous 20 years at the Granny White church in Nashville and the Hamilton, AL congregation.

Over the years Dale has authored and edited many books, and authored numerous published articles. In addition, Dale has spoken at many lectureships, workshops, retreats, and youth events.

Dale serves on the boards of Heritage Christian University, Maywood Christian Camp, and Exposure Youth Camp. Dale also serves on the advisory boards of International Gospel Hour and Freed-Hardeman University.

Dale, along with his brother Jeff, founded and run The Jenkins Institute which conducts seminars, webinars, blogs and conferences designed to serve, encourage and equip ministers. Dale is the curator of The Scoop Blog. They are most proud of their efforts with the BETTER Conferences and First Years.
