

-Prayer List-

- Vernelle Morris fell and broke her left knee cap. Please pray for her recovery as she has a lot of pain (No visitors please - calls and cards are welcome).
- Joetta Church, the older sister of Janet Travis, had a stroke last week and is now in rehab.
- Jacob Nunn, son-in-law of Wayne & Donna Wallace, has two more chemo treatments. He will have tests at the end of April to determine if he is in remission.
- Carol Lachance, sister of Teresa Drake, had a breast biopsy that came back positive for cancer.
- Danielle Robinson asks for prayers after a former student passed away unexpectedly last week. Please pray for the student's family and the entire Wilkes County community.
- Esmond Jones requests prayers for his family during a time of difficulty.
- Jackie Craig started new treatments on Thursday.
- Nick Younger, the son-in-law of Peggy Sullivan, passed away.
- Virginia Evans, member at Evans church of Christ, passed away.
- John and Mary Moore are both at home now after being hospitalized this past weekend. John was back in the hospital Thursday due to breathing issues, but he is back home now. Also, after further testing, John was diagnosed with pneumonia (instead of a heart attack).
- Patricia Ford is now in a regular room after being in ICU for several days due to a fall. Please no visitors at this time.
- Nolen Graves had tests on a spot on his back. Tests revealed that it was pre-cancerous, and they believe all, but a small portion is removed. They will keep an eye on it, but this is good news.
- Bernice Walker requests prayers for strength and endurance during a difficult time.
- Teresa Drake asks for the prayers of the church for her family during a time of spiritual difficulty.
- Riley Kester is now home from the hospital. He has had procedures to remove fluid from his lungs and heart. He still needs the procedure to correct a-fib. Please continue to pray for Riley and Joyce.
